A MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Him we preach, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.

This scripture from Colossians 1:28 has been the basis of my ministry here at East Coast Christian Center. In 1992, God gave me a vision of a school here on our campus. There needed to be a way through which we could go beyond the Sunday and Wednesday teaching time to an in-depth study of God's Word, a way to equip Christians to have a greater impact in their community. East Coast Christian University is the answer.

More than just an evening academic program for working adults wanting to finish a college degree, ECCU is for anyone who wants to take their knowledge of the Word to the next level. Whether students are serving strategically in their church or pursuing full-time ministry as a vocation, this university offers a practical way for them to grow in knowledge and application of the Word of God.

ECCU has also become a gateway for connection within our local community. Because it is open to anyone who would like to attend, the student body consists of pastors and artists, blue-collar workers and business executives, young adults and retirees; a diverse group that brings a variety of life experience to the classroom. This cross-section of cultural, economic, and vocational backgrounds provides a rich environment for academic growth and a solid foundation for new relationships.

It is our goal at ECCU to deliver Biblical truths in terms that immediately translate into everyday life. Through ECCU, we are able to continue in our vision of building a life-giving church that lasts. If God is calling you to go deeper and come up higher, you should definitely consider being a part of

EAST COAST CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY.

Dan Stallbaum

THE ECCU MISSION

Now these are the gifts Christ gave to the church: the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers. Their responsibility is to equip God's people to do his work and build up the church, the body of Christ. This will continue until we all come to such unity in our faith and knowledge of God's Son that we will be mature in the Lord, measuring up to the full and complete standard of Christ. (Ephesians 4:11—13)

East Coast Christian University is building believers who know whom and whose they are and training them to effectively utilize the tools God gave them. We have specifically targeted classes within the first two years to develop tools every believer needs to successfully navigate this life, spiritually. Truth mixed with love administered by leaders speaking from their passionate calling will impact you as never before. Once and for all time, you will learn who you are, whose you are, and know how to practically exercise the tools Papa God gave you. Our Father did not mean for his children to stagnate nor flounder. We are made to grow and accomplish exploits.

For those who wish to continue studies toward a Bachelor's, Master's or Doctorate in Theology, we have the resources on hand to accelerate your growth.

The foundation has been laid. East Coast Christian University is specially set up for you to keep your job, stay in your church, learn about God and His Word, put to practice what you have learned and, if you wish, earn a Degree in Theology. We have classroom and online access to facilitate your growth.

For those who want to learn but are not concerned about a degree, we have an audit program to give all the books, basic information and personal interaction with fellow students and instructors without testing and term papers. Audit students receive a certificate of completion for reference at other schools and ministries.

If you are hungry for more of God and if you want your life to be completely transformed, I invite you to come and grow with us. Come, and I guarantee you will never be the same. See you in class.

J. Marvin Alderman
Provost, East Coast Christian University

STATEMENT OF FAITH

THE SALVATION OF MAN

We are saved from the penalty of sin exclusively through acceptance of God's offer of forgiveness. This forgiveness came through the crucifixion, death, and bodily resurrection of His Son, Jesus Christ. We are unable to achieve this forgiveness through any other means or methods. Jesus Christ's sacrifice enabled the great rescue wherein we receive by faith absolute erasure of even the memory of our sins for all of eternity.. We are granted eternal life, and we become the adopted children of God. (John 3:16, John 14:6, Romans 4:4-5, Romans 6:23, Galatians 4:4-7, Hebrews 8:12, Hebrews 10:17)

EVIDENCE OF SALVATION

The evidence of salvation is seen internally and externally. The internal evidence is the direct witness of the Holy Spirit. The external evidence is the fruit of the Spirit, as we have become new creations as we are transformed into the image of Christ. (Romans 8:16, Galatians 5:22-23, 2 Corinthians 3:18)

ORDINANCES OF THE CHURCH

Water Baptism

Baptism by immersion is a public profession of our faith, and is symbolic of the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is our testimony to others that we have chosen to die to sin and have now been raised to walk in newness of life. Under the New Covenant, followers of Jesus Christ submit to a ceremony of baptism where they formally identify with His death and resurrection, permanently identifying themselves as members of His family. (Matthew 28:19, Romans 6:4, Hebrews 10:22)

Communion

The Lord's Supper consists of the bread that represents the broken body of Jesus Christ and the cup which represents His shed blood, and is both a memorial of Jesus' suffering and death and a celebration of our salvation. (1 Corinthians 11:26, 2 Peter 1:4)

THE CHURCH AND ITS MISSION

The Church is the body of Christ, made up of all those who are Believers in the one true God and His gift of salvation through Jesus Christ. The collective purpose of the church is to worship God, equip Believers for ministry, and fulfill the Great Commission. (Mark 16:15-20, 1 Corinthians 12:12-28, Ephesians 4:11-13)

ETERNITY

Every person ever created will either exist forever in the Kingdom of heaven with God, or in hell, forever separated from God. Where a person spends eternity depends entirely on their decision to choose or refuse forgiveness and salvation. Once a person dies a physical death, this choice is final. No power in the Universe can separate a Believer from God and, conversely, nothing can be done for an unbeliever who dies apart from God. (Matthew 25:31-46, Romans 2:1-9, Romans 8:35, 38-39, 1 Corinthians 4:5, Revelation 20:10-15, Revelation 21:1-22)

ABSOLUTES, CONVICTIONS, AND PREFERENCES

Scripture is the absolute authority in all matters of faith and, as such, is the final Word on what is absolute. Outside of the Scriptural realm of absolutes, convictions are those areas in which Believers are responsible to God for choices pertaining to their personal values. Preferences are neither absolutes nor convictions; rather, they are reflective of one's desires based on traditions or individual taste.

THE BIBLE

It is the infallible, inerrant Word of God. It is the only supernaturally-inspired, written revelation from God to man, and is the final authority in all matters of faith and conduct. (2 Timothy 3:15-17, 1 Peter 2:22)

GOD

There is one true God. He is the Creator and Ruler of the Universe, and has revealed Himself as eternally-existent in a three-part Trinity, the Father, the Son, and Holy Spirit, who are co-equal. (Deuteronomy 6:4, Isaiah 43:10-11, Matthew 28:19)

JESUS CHRIST

Jesus Christ is the one and only Son of God. The second person of the Trinity, He was born of a virgin through miraculous conception. He lived a sinless life, offered Himself as the perfect sacrifice for all sins, died on the cross, and arose after three days to demonstrate His power over sin and death. He sits at the right hand of God as the exclusive mediator between God and man, and will return again to earth to rule and reign.

(Matthew 1:18-23, Matthew 28:1-6, Acts 1:9, 11, 1 Corinthians 15:3-4, 2 Corinthians 5:21, 1 John 3:4-5)

THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Trinity, equal with God the Father and Jesus the Son. He remains on earth as the Comforter for every Believer, empowering them with an understanding of spiritual truth. There are nine fruit of the Spirit, which are evidence of a Spirit-filled life and spiritual maturity. (John 14:16-17, John 14:26, 1 Corinthians 12:31, 1 Corinthians 14, Galatians 5:22-23)

THE FALL OF MAN

We were created in the image and likeness of God. Adam's voluntary choice to disobey God, however, led to the first sin, which brought into effect the cursed earth, began the process of physical death, and caused spiritual separation from God. We exist in eternal separation from God unless we accept the free gift of salvation through Jesus Christ. (Genesis 1:26, Genesis 3:1-7, Genesis 3:17, Romans 5:12-21)

ACCREDITATION

East Coast Christian University is accredited through a non-governmental accrediting agency; Transworld Accrediting Commission International. TACI is an agency dedicated to the support and recognition of excellence in Christian education. As a Christian University, ECCU is specifically designed to equip the students to fulfill God's call in their lives, in the ministry and Christian education. ECCU is NOT accredited by the Department of Education. It is under Florida Statute 1005.06 (1)(f) Religious Institutions Exempt from the Commission's Jurisdiction and Rule 6E-5.001.

STUDENT POLICIES

STANDARD OF CONDUCT

All students enrolled with East Coast Christian University are expected to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the teachings of Jesus Christ, both on and off campus. If a student fails to conduct themselves in an acceptable manner; the university administration reserves the right to refuse admission, place the student in disciplinary probation, suspend or dismiss such student at their own discretion. For example, academic dishonesty and plagiarism are not acceptable behaviors and both are subject to immediate dismissal. Students causing strife, division, disruptive behavior, etcetera will be dealt with according to Matthew 18; if the behavior continues, the student will be expelled from school with no refund.

It is understood and agreed by your verification on the student application that the university, the administration and/or faculty shall not be held liable in any way for such a disciplinary decision.

DRESS CODE

Think of Who we are representing. As students in a Christian university, we should always look presentable in class. Modest, tasteful, well-groomed and clean are basic guidelines for all students. Be considerate to those around us, to make them feel comfortable, not hindered by distractions. A professional business-casual look is a good practice.

Please note specific requirements:

- No bare feet
- No tank tops
 - We have ECCU T-shirts in the school office, in case you forget.
- No shorts above the knee
- Pants must not be worn midway or below the hips
- Men, if you wear a T-shirt, wear slacks or jeans with it to dress it up.
Otherwise, wear collared shirts.

Please be advised that these guidelines will be enforced.

- For the first violation, the student will receive a warning.
- The second violation, the student will be sent home.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Students are expected to be present in each class in a timely manner. Tardiness is a distraction for your instructor and fellow students.
2. Chronic tardiness will be handled on a case by case situation.
3. Degree students must read all required textbooks, take all quizzes, tests, exams, perform any oral presentations, and turn in all research papers and any work requirement no later than one week (7 days) after the last day of class.

LATE WORK

1. If all the required work has not been turned in within one week of the last day of class, the student will receive an “Incomplete” for the course.

2. Final grade will automatically drop a letter grade for work turned in eight days after the last day of class.
3. If all the requirements for the course are not completed within 4 weeks of the last day of class, the “Incomplete” will become an “F” and the student will be required to pay the full tuition of the course and take the course again.

FAILING GRADE

If a student fails a course, they will have to pay the full tuition of the course and re-take the course.

Students attending by scholarship must repay the full amount for the course and retake the course using their own funds.

STRATEGIC SERVICE PRACTICUM

In order to earn their program level degree or certificate of completion, all students enrolled in East Coast Christian University are required to volunteer each school year in their local church or ministries approved by ECCU administration. Volunteer hours are accrued from June through May of each school year. The student may not count volunteer hours from previous years or for activities planned for the future. Please notice the different requirements.

- Audit 75 hours per year
- Undergraduate 75 hours per year
- Graduate 150 hours per year
- Doctorate 300 hours per year

Volunteer hours are verified by a church leader through the Strategic Service Log. The school year has nine courses for a total of twenty-seven (27) credit hours and a Strategic Service Practicum of three (3) credit hours to complete the thirty (30) credit hours requirement per year.

TH 103

Who I Am in Christ

This course teaches who we are in Christ as new creatures and how to experience the power of walking daily in these truths; moreover to understand the transformation work Jesus has performed in our lives. (TH 111 Basics of Righteousness is pre-requisite)

TH 104 & 105 How to Receive God's Healing 1&2

Students will learn what the Word of God says about healing, how to pray to receive their healing and what may hinder them from receiving it.

TH 108 Strategic Service / Leadership

The ministry of helps is an appointed and anointed ministry of the Lord. It is how the Lord's plans are put into action. Understanding and working under authority is God's plan for the Church and our personal lives. This course addresses both concepts and their preferred interaction.

TH 109 Stewardship 101

This course will guide the students through the OT and NT to full understanding God's will relating to money and stewardship of resources within their spheres of influence. They will learn the law of sowing and reaping leading to further enjoyment of God's favor in their lives. Students will learn practical steps to live a balanced lifestyle.

TH 110 Believer's Authority

Students will examine the authority of the believer, what it is, and how to apply it. They will also review the relationship between having authority and being under authority. The practical result is to walk in that authority, daily.

TH 111 Basics of Righteousness

Students will learn about the human being's spirit, soul, and body as well as how Jesus has provided legal justification and right standing with our Creator.

TH 112 Live and Walk by Faith

This intensive course builds a firm knowledge of faith's foundation in God's Word and increases faith through practical application.

TH 204 & 205 Gospels 1 & 2

This course will give students an overview of the four Gospels, the life of Jesus Christ while here on earth. It will also cover and discuss specific subjects the Lord taught His disciples and the people.

TH 208 How to Study the Bible

Students will learn the importance of journaling, how to do topical studies, book studies, character studies, specific words of the Bible studies, and in-depth studies within the framework of a research paper.

TH 210 Communing with God

This course will help students communicate with God in a more personal way. Jesus reconciled our relationship with God the Father; therefore, we are able to be in the presence of Abba Father, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit.

TH 211 Blood Covenant

The student will learn what a blood covenant is and what it means for us to be in blood covenant with God. This course will permanently, positively impact your view of

TH 305 & 306 1 & 2 Corinthians

This course will study the historical background of the city of Corinth. It will cover the letters of Paul to the Corinthians, the problems of the early church, the scriptural solutions and how it applies to us today.

TH 309 Ephesians

This course unveils the mystery of the church; it reveals God's will to unite the Jew and the Gentile and to equip and empower Christians.

TH 310 Hebrews

The book of Hebrews demonstrates the authority and dominion Jesus has over the law, prophets, and angels, and encourages believers to stand strong in their faith.

TH 311 Law vs. Grace – The Real Story

This study of the book of Galatians encourages students to learn how Jesus bought freedom for every human being and replaced living under the Law with living under Grace.

TH 402 General Epistles

This course is an overview of the books of James, Peter, John, and Jude. Students will learn why the books were written and what it means to believers today.

TH 403

Pastoral Epistles

This course covers the letters to Timothy and Titus through the Books, 1 & 2 Timothy and Titus. It examines scriptural qualifications for pastors and ministers and advice and encouragement for situations pastors face. It also shows that even though not everyone is called to the fivefold ministry, all believers are ministers of the Gospel of Christ.

TH 404

First John

Students will learn the importance of having a personal relationship with God; understand His love for us, and the importance to abide in the faith. This book clarifies how Jesus was both God and human at the same time.

TH 405

Attributes of the Believer

Students will learn how to follow the example of Jesus Christ and His character drawing strength from the relationship with the Father.

TH 407

Survey of the New Testament

This course offers an overview of the books of the New Testament. Students will learn the authors of each book, to whom it each was addressed, and their general themes.

TH 408 & 409 Survey of the Old Testament 1 & 2

These courses are an overview of the books of the Old Testament. Students will know each book's author, to whom it was addressed and its general theme. They will see how Christ is portrayed in the Old Testament and perceive the value of studying the Old Testament.

TH 410 End Times

This course presents theories of pre/mid/post-tribulation return of Christ. Students will gain a better understanding of the book of Revelation.

TH 411 Hearing the Voice of God

This course will help each student have deeper intimacy with the Lord and be able to recognize His voice.

TH 412 Lifestyle of the Believer
